

*The Calumet City Historical Society
presents:*

Trash or Treasure

By Rex Newell

Rex Newell of Rex's Antiques will do a presentation on some of his specialties of art and coin. Afterward, he will go around the room and do an appraisal on one item for each person at no charge. Rex specializes in antiques, mid-century modern, antique furniture, old toys, board games, real and costume jewelry, watches, American coins, designer furniture, and paper currency, including national notes, gold notes, confederate notes, silver notes, star notes, and U.S. postage currency. He appraises war relics such as original military antiques, cloth army insignias, field gear, groups, metal emblems, and uniforms. He also specializes in artwork, including sculptures, fine art, paintings, rare sets, statues, framed art, and prints from the mid-20th century. You can participate and receive a complimentary appraisal; there is a one-item limit per person. Everyone is welcome to enjoy the program.
