19th Century Life Through Artifacts

By Michael and Mario Bovino

Michael and Mario Bovino are modern-day “diggers”! They will be sharing their adventures of unearthing historical remnants in the Chicago and Calumet areas. Anticipate a captivating presentation as they reveal the secrets of uncovering numerous artifacts using maps and historical documents from the Calumet Region, including Lansing and Calumet City.

Prepare to gain unique insights into life in the Calumet Region from 1860 to 1890 as they delve into the stories behind the artifacts they have discovered. You will have the opportunity to see and even touch dozens of these fascinating items on display. This event will be an enlightening experience that you will not want to miss!
