100th Anniversary of the Name Change & Calumet City in the 1920s

By Joseph Bigott

Celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the name change from the City of West Hammond to Calumet City in 1924 with another exciting presentation by historian Joseph Bigott. In 1923, residents wishing to rid the city's reputation as "sin city" voted to change the name. Under Mayor Kamradt, the hope was to refresh the image as the "City of Homes" and away from vice during the Prohibition era. Hear about life in the 1920s during Mayor Paul Kamradt (1915-1925) and Mayor John Jaranowski (1925-1935).
